

Dear Friends

I am sorry that you had to save your cows I saw the pictures and I wish that I was there to help to save your cows. And I hope you get every thing back and even your little cows back. I hope you get your crops back and get happy again and your wheat back.

Sincerely

Dear freinds

I wanted to tell you that I feel really bad for you. I wish we could help you. I hope you have all the hay that you need. I know some of your cows past away but im glad that you risked your life to save them. I know you're sad but you have to be brave and strong. I hope everything get's fixed. I hope by next year you get the baby cows that you need.

We are thinking about you guys. My heart is full of love becaase you guys are so brave. Never give up your hard work. I hope you guys are ok and thankyou for trying to fix everything. I saw the helicopters helping you guys. You guys are not alone don't forget that. I want to thankyou for our food that is made from crops. I know it's going to take a long time for you guys to fix every thing. I hope it gets done soon. Im sorry you have to do all that work but I there is some other people that are there to help you.

Dear Farmers I Just want to let you know we all appreciate you and your hard work. I wish my mom and dad owned hay then I would immediately tell them to send some hay. I feel so bad for you. I wish I could help you. I'm sorry that you lost your cows. I know I saw pictures of wild fires burning barns down.
I'm sorry your land got burnt.

— Dear, friend
There have been fires throughout towns It's tough but life isn't just happy. There's tough things to go through these life. I know you're strong. You will get through these tough times. People are always thinking about you. Different things will come and go. Good things come and Bad things come, but you'll get the good things
