Dear friends,

I just want to write you to tell you that I am very sad for your cattle and crops.
It must have been hard for the recent fires you guys had to face.

I have lived in Kansas since I was a couple of months old. I feel really bad because I like animals and I know it's not so easy. I hope next year will be better. Thank you for taking care of the animals

Dear fire fighters
Thank you for putting out the fire for us, Ashland, and all the states that were effected by the fires. Also for your bravery, dedication, and team work. Your quick actions and detailed planning saved lives by gaining control of the fire. I also to thank the pilots who assisted with fighting the fires. most of all thank you all for the great risks you put yourself in to to save other
